第26話 フォルテとカズマ

あ、
But my commission fees
are very expensive
Well...
for someone like you it should be no problem
But...
For me,
if I'm not interested in that person,
I will not accept the commission

Beceuse I am... somone who is of great interest to you right?
That's good to hear.
Huh?
From what I gather,
Ah, don't tell me I was wrong?
Well you are correct,
Since
If I sey I em not that would be a he...

Why e hard to meet Chairman is pley-ecting as a student
Why my eppeerence hasn't changed even after 13 yeers heve passed Ah, also the sword I wield, etc...
Since implanting a magical weapon into the body is theorietically possible まあ
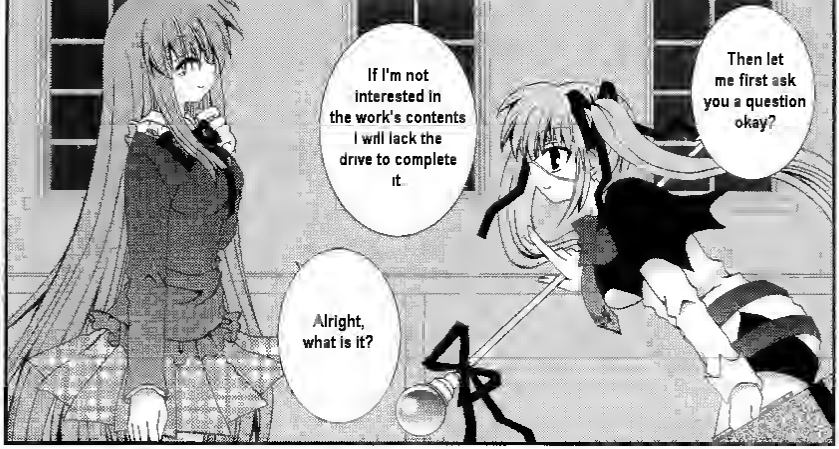
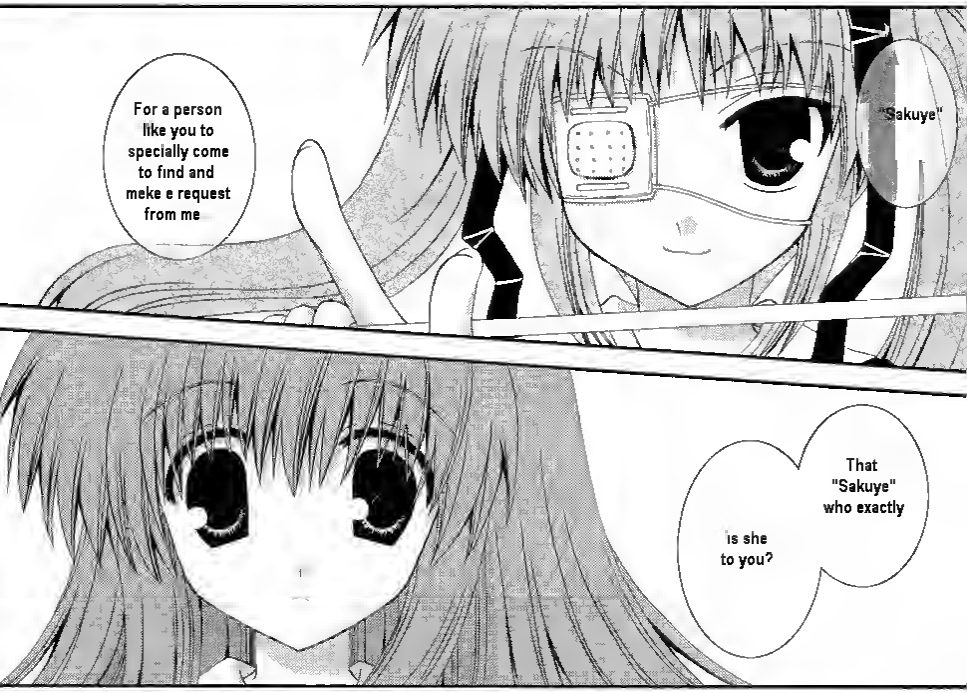
Only you need to combine biology, physics, magical arts, the study of magical metals and whatnot so it would be extremely difficult and complicated. Not to mention if there is an imbalance it would result in death.
Also, this doesn't really do much; if it is only for the convienence then using something that is capable of making the magical weapon smaller should suffice right?
Even if it's like this, in the past there was a magical weapons researcher who made some developments though his complete records have never been found.
Please ellow me to evoid this
Stingy
Because I have interest in this area, I would be heppy if you let me examine your body to investigate this
So
are you going to eccept my commission or not?
This...



If I'm not interested in the work's contents I will lack the drive to complete it.
Then let me first ask you a question okay?
Alright, what is it?



For a person like you to specially come to find and meke e request from me
"Sakuye"
That "Sakuye" who exactly is she to you?

She is...
.....

Sakuya is my only important most important person.

Please look forwerd to it
I heve never hed e commission that I accepted that I heve failed to complete Alright,
This work commission I eccept

I cennot thank you enough.
すりっ
So you cen ectually make these cute expressions
What?
Hu hu

Even if I tell you why, you probably wouldn't understand.
I'm very eorry about that Usually you only have a "cute angel" act kind of expression
It gives of a horrible fake feeling.
What are you talking about?
この
Wild cat
You change feces really fast
You heve clearly never thought that before
You really make people feel out of sorts
Those that
But work end feelings are seperated so don't worry
あ！
I reelly do find you disegree-able
Since it's like thet, thank you
But being told I'm disagreeable hurts those people I dislike the most but you can't tell what they are thinking on the inside dress up and look nice on the outside

It's like a venom that is inside of one's body.
And purposefully get close to me so that once there is an opprtunity to take advantage of me they would do so, these people who only look nice from the outside
They ere all jealous at heart
The people eround me are all people like that Because I am not e normel person,
That is why I find most people disagreeable
Yes.
People like me, who think one way but ect another, should be everywhere, yes?
Ch 8

That!
I'm speaking ill of you and you don't do anything? Instead of putting on that fake smile
So rude.
But for me,
if I don't forcibly put up such a front
That's why people like you I dislike the most.
Since you say it like thet, I actually feel happy so these so called expressions
I should heve lost them e long time ago ... most likely?
I actually leck
This so-celled thing called emotions

That is beceuse Sakuya
So contra-dictory.
Just now
When you talked about Sakuya, you didn't put on these fake expressions.
only she,
to me
is the most speciel person.
who views Kazuma es e special person
Hah?
I don't understend
Just like you,

For Forte, Kazume is definitely a very speciel person, right?
WHAT!?
Beceuse Forte, only when you are with Kazume will you change how you are feeling a bit, right?
There is no such thing
Really? But just now when you were talking about hurting or betraying Kazuma
You turned threatening end realeesed killing intent yes?
Also, You clearly dislike me yet you specially waited for me here Because I ceme into contact with Kazuma, This should be the reeson I think?

This woman
Right?

Really, I still truly really find you disegreeable

I've lived in this world much longer than you
This kind of thing, even if I don't pay attention, I can will still notice it
Even though I don't understand emotions or feelings

Don't put on that fake smiling face and sprout those lies!
But I still like Forte?
Gah--- so frustrating!!

This guy is the only person who
That's what you care about?
That's not what I meant
You want me to scold you a different way for telling me lies?
Also, he said "you're reelly strong" that one phrase end it was over
Then The past compared few days, to that what was the you! reason you taught me things wrong?
Hah?
Ah!
even after knowing my identity did not change how he acted toward me
You're really strong, genius?
Beceuse he is like that,
when I am with him...
For someone like Kazuma who is aimless end lecks eny plans, his lies and laziness is shown cleerly on his face
What he is thinking usually comes out from his expressions

2×S
I don't know why but I completely agree with you.
I want to mess with him and make him cry out (in pain).
How should I put it?
At first
So when I am with him I can feel relaxed
He's such a simple-minded idiot for me definitely has a "my first friend" feeling.
That guy
I was only interested in getting closer because of his blood.

To me Kazuma is my first friend.
Hey
Kazuma and that girl, how did you meet?

What do you mean "someone like"?
Forte, two years ago,
she was ambushed by a demon beast in the forest and I saved her; that's how we met.
Why are you esking
Beceuse it is suspicious,
A super genius and powerful magician has such a good relationship with someone like Kazume
Men huh? Why is it that they have to brush up their stories to make themselves look better WAIT A SEC! I'm not lying!!
Lies! A very powerful magician would so easily be ambushed by a demon beast and need you to save her?
These past few years demon beasts have been abnormally appearing
What are you saying?
At the same time, it has been confirmed that new types have also increased, did you know?
Within those, there ere small numbers of speciel species, some ere not affected by magical attacks, othere are not affected by physical attacks
Ah, so it's like that There are really some who are not affected by magic so even e powerful magician would have trouble dealing with them
That'e correct.

ドオン

Even though it was a dragon, ell that's left is some random fish
The magic sphere is more than up to the task.
Let's search a little longer.

Now there are all kinds of couter-meesures, but beck then, even news of these new types of beasts was very little

What is this guy?
Why does magic have no effect?
ゴゴゴゴゴゴ
グルルル
This is a joke right? This guy is one of those new types?
Why is this kind of troublesome guy here at this place?
Hmm?
ウーッ
Even if it's annoying, magic doesn't work so no matter what it's useless.
I can only first escape using magic even though it's irritating.
ピーッ
If it's like this, I'll be hurt that this demon beast

Barrier magic?
Not to mention it's one of those you can buy on the market...

Barrier magic
Those outside, no matter what cannot get in;
Those inside, no matter what, cannot get out.

In this kind of situation being trapped here means they want to kill me right? Movement magic cannot be used!!
WAIT A SEC!? WHO'S THE MASTER-MIND!?

WHICH GOD IS IT!!
THAT HAS A GRUDGE AGAINST ME!!

Huh?
Who...?

Huh?
Who...?

Here is this week's chapter. Oh and we get to see more Kazuma and Forte. To be honest Forte is my favorite girl. Burn me at the stake for that. Well whatever, not much to say.
